Miles of pipe are placed in the building, and when a fire breaks out, the heat melts the small metallic faucets and this automatically opens the sprinklers, at the same time an alarm is sounded on the outside and inside of the building which can be heard for blocks. Even the outside of the building, at all openings, is protected by a spray.

LADIES OF THE G. A. R. AND THE RELIEF CORPS

Editor Standard: There seems to be a conflict of opinion, locally, as to the relation of the W. R. C. and the Ladies of the G. A. R. to the Grand Army of the Republic.

A G. A. R. Post can have but one auxiliary, and that is the Woman's Relief Corps. Their eligibility clause is broad. Any moral, loyal woman can become a member.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. are an independent organization. In their eligibility clause they eliminate the "loyal women" clause and admit none to membership unless soldiers' wives or blood kin relations. Their name, their lineage and their wifely bonds proclaim them as the household of the G. A. R., which is fast passing away. By far the larger division are camped on the other shore. When that body ceases to exist, the work of the auxiliary is done. The time is coming when, like the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will become distinguished because of their loyal services. (Signed) W. E. Wells.

FIREWORKS FAIR GROUNDS PIONEER DAY, JULY 24

Convinced That the Weather Man Is Not Disposed to Have Rain On Pioneer Day, the Management of the Intermountain Fair Association Announces That There Will Be a Grand Illumination on That Date.

The great display of fireworks so many times described in this paper will be discharged at the Fair Grounds, on Saturday evening, July 24th, 1908. Four times the advertising of these fireworks have brought rain to a thirsting soil in Weber county. The fair officials hope that on July 24th the soil will not need watering and that the weather will permit of the grand display of fireworks.

Enoch Marr, Jr., will have charge of the fireworks and assures the fair officials that an inspector just made shows all of the fireworks to be in good order, and, unless it rains, he will give the people the grandest illumination ever seen in Ogden.

The following program of twenty-eight numbers, requiring one hour and thirty minutes of continuous illumination will be a treat for all those fortunate enough to get in the Fair grounds.

The fireworks are of the same grade and manufacture as those fired off at Butte, Montana, on July 4th, which were acknowledged by the Butte people to be the very best in the land. Mr. Schanzenbach of Kiesel & Co., was in Butte on the last Fourth of July and said they charged 50 cents to $1.00 to see the fireworks, and that he will pay, again to see the same class of illumination in Ogden.

The price of admission at the Fair grounds will be only 25 cents; children under 12, 10 cents. Grandstand free, except that the first six rows in the new grandstand will be reserved at 25 cents extra.

The Program July 24th.
1.—Grand Opening Salute 6 Signal Shells.
2.—Carmine Illumination Flanked by 3 Prismatic Fountains.
3.—Six Japanese Night Bombs.

POSTOFFICE AT MORGAN ROBBED

BROKEN INTO AT LATE HOUR LAST NIGHT.

Supposed to be the Work of One of the Men Who Robbed the Hot Springs.

The postoffice at Morgan, about 22 miles east of Ogden was broken into between 11 and 12 o'clock last night, and about $250 in money and stamps secured. Entrance to the building was gained through the front door. This is the second postoffice robbery in this section within a week.

The authorities at Morgan are searching for a fellow who was seen hanging around the town all day yesterday and whose description is much similar to that of the tall man of the trio who held up and robbed the postoffice and hotel at the Utah Hot Springs, north of Ogden, last Monday.

Postoffice Inspector Lowe left for Morgan this morning. The local police are watching the city closely for some trace of the man, who is thought to have headed this way.

RAPID FIRE GUN FOR CO. B

CAUSES A STIR IN THE LOCAL MILITIA.

Boys Now Have Crew With the Latest Equipment—New Uniforms Have Arrived.

The members of company "B," First Infantry, N. G. U., are jubilant over the arrival of a Colt's machine gun and limber. In addition to a company of infantry, Ogden will soon have a completely equipped machine gun platoon. This will be in compliance with a recent order of the war department, allowing one machine gun platoon to each regiment of infantry.

Lieut. G. R. Lawrence saw the opportunity for an addition to the Ogden company, and, through his commanding officer, Lt. E. Kneass, had the guns and necessary equipment ordered. A picked crew has been assigned to the gun under the tutelage of Sergeant F. E. Miller.

As the encampment is drawing near company "B" is working and drilling hard to retain its title as the best drilled and most efficient infantry company in the regiment and also to capture any cups, medals, cash prizes or other trophies that are to be awarded.

Word has been received that the new olive drab service uniforms have been received in Salt Lake City and they will soon replace the khaki uniforms now being worn.

The company has two teams of fifteen men hard at work qualifying for the state shoot. One team of twelve marksmen is practicing upon the 200 and 300-yard range in Ogden, while the other team composed of picked sharpshooters is shooting upon the 500 and 600-yard range at Bonneville. The latter team consists of Lieutenants W. E. Kneass, J. D. Snowden, G. R. Lawrence, Corporal Floyd Smith, Trumpeter R. C. Glassmann and Privates John Way, Lealand Mortensen, Clifford Hassing and Charles Pincombe.

The highest individual score made by any member of this team was made last Sunday by Corporal Floyd Smith, who made five consecutive bull's eyes in five shots upon the 600-yard range; a score of 25 out of a possible 25 at long distance.

Superintendent E. C. Manson is back at his office from a trip of inspection over the Salt Lake division and is enthusiastic over the rapidly increasing freight traffic on the Southern Pacific. To a Standard reporter Mr. Manson said:

"While passenger business has been heavier this year than ever before on the various Harriman lines centering at Ogden, freight traffic is now increasing rapidly and will keep us all busy from this on. Deciduous fruit is beginning to move from California and the west-bound business is picking up wonderfully. We are in excellent shape to handle traffic expeditiously and, although our motive power is in fine shape at this time we will have to draw on our reserve engines from this time on. This will increase our working forces all along the Salt Lake division and necessitate the putting on of additional freight crews to handle the traffic."

"Inlay is giving excellent satisfaction as a freight terminal and everything is moving along nicely and smoothly at that point."

"We are distributing new steel at various points on the Salt Lake division and about 120 miles of ninety-pound steel rails will be laid this year west of Ogden. This heavy steel takes the place of 75-pound rails and the improvement work will require additional construction trains during the summer and fall months."

"Among other things we are arranging to open numerous telegraph offices on the division that have been closed since the panic of 1907, and, all together, there is reason to believe that we will exceed all records of the past this season."

NEW TRAINS ON THE O. S. L.

FAST TIME TO BE MADE TO PORTLAND, ORE.

One More Train Between Ogden and Salt Lake—Great Rush of Passengers to Northwest.

Superintendent A. B. Stevenson of the Utah division of the Oregon Short Line is in the city today and is registered at local railroad headquarters. Mr. Stevenson says the heavy passenger traffic on the Oregon Short Line this season is unprecedented in the history of the system, and the fact that result of this splendid business, a new passenger train will be put on the latter part of the month between Salt Lake, Ogden and Portland. The schedule for the new train has not yet been completed, but it is thought the train will leave Ogden for Portland between 7 and 8 o'clock in the evening, and it will run through to the coast on a fast schedule.

Aside from this, a new local train will be put on between Ogden and Salt Lake city. The schedule for this is being arranged and the formal announcement of the hours of service will be made in the near future.

Equipment for both of these new trains is being assembled at Ogden, but, owing to heavy passenger traffic on all of the Harriman roads, the problem of securing coaches and cars for these trains is a matter of deep concern to operating officials.

After August 1, sixty-two passenger trains will arrive and depart from the Union passenger depot in this city every twenty-four hours. Or, counting both arrivals and departures, 124 trains will be handled in the local yards during those hours. This record exceeds that of any other railroad center between Omaha and the Pacific Coast and indicates Ogden's importance as the railroad metropolis of the west.

BARBERS EXPLAIN THE NEW RATES

Editor Standard: As there seems to be considerable misunderstanding and some offense because of the wording of an article which appeared in the Morning Examiner of last Wednesday, we wish to make the following statement of facts. The barbers did not raise prices, as will be shown by the schedule of prices to be posted next week. The only things we did was to charge for something which we had for years been giving to the people free of charge. As a matter of fact, the barber business all over the country has been imposed upon in the matter of shaving of necks. We are not averse to shaving a neck when it needs it, but when we are asked to shave the neck two or three times per week, it not only becomes a burden to the barber, but it is a positive injury to the neck. It was not so much the revenue to be derived, as it was a preventative measure, that we might be permitted to do more of the work for which we do receive pay. Then again, we believe we have met our patrons half way, for if the check amounts to 25 cents or more we are still willing to present them with a free neck shave. We were not responsible for the "sentiments" expressed in the article referred to, and we believe that when our patrons come to thoroughly understand our position and situation—the fact that it is an unnecessary burden, and that we are the longest worked and poorest paid of almost any of the skilled craftsmen, and that there has been no advance in our prices for several years, while the cost of living has steadily increased—they will readily recognize the justice of what we ask. Respectfully, J. A. Reeder, president; W. M. Piggott, secretary.

RATES WHICH WOULD AID THIS SECTION

While local Harriman officials have been advised that the Western Passenger Association has adopted the proposed arrangement to grant ten days' stopover privileges at both Ogden and Salt Lake, after August 1, on all eastbound round trip tickets, efforts are now being made to have this ruling applied to westbound and northbound tickets as well.

While the concession already granted is of an important nature, the granting of the stop-over privilege to westbound and northbound passengers is really of more importance to Ogden—as a very large percentage of those desiring this courtesy come from the East and North and are desirous of looking over the city and adjacent country with a view of locating new homes in the West.

It is to be hoped the Western Passenger Association will appreciate the justice of extending and broadening the present ruling so that stop-over privileges will be accorded passengers arriving at Ogden from every direction.

FATAL SHOOTING IN HOTEL LOBBY

Los Angeles, July 16.—Albert Ryan of Colorado shot and killed H. E. Snyder and fatally wounded Otto Miller, a porter, at the United States hotel in this city tonight.

A stray bullet slightly wounded Michael Lopez of Wilmington, who was standing on the sidewalk outside. Ryan then attempted to commit suicide but was prevented by Police Officer Miller, who disarmed him as he was reloading the revolver.

Ryan came here from Denver and Cripple Creek, being an organizer of the Western Federation of Miners, assigned to southern California. The shooting was the result of a quarrel started in a night club with Snyder, Miller. The shooting of H. E. Snyder was accidental.

Ryan saw Miller sitting in the hotel lobby this evening and immediately began firing. All of his six bullets found targets. Three hit Miller, one in a neck, another in the chest and a third in the stomach. Snyder was hit in the stomach by two bullets, being almost immediately. The sixth bullet struck Lopez, who was passing in the street.

Miller was taken to the emergency hospital, where it is said he is fatally wounded.
